1	Serba Dinamik Berhad	i) RM500.0 million multi-currency Islamic Commercial Papers Programme ii) RM1.5 billion Islamic Medium-Term Notes Programme with a combined limit of RM1.5 billion	A+ _{IS}	Negative	There is zero outstanding to the issuance. The ratings remained on MARCWatch Negative since May 31, 2021. The rating action was taken due to issues pertaining to the group's annual accounts for financial year ending December 31, 2020. The rift between the auditors KPMG and Serba Dinamik had widened leading to the auditors being resigning/replaced and legal action being instituted against each other. The accounts has not been passed. Serba Dinamik has announced that new auditors are expected to be appointed by end July 2021. MARC is actively monitoring the situation and will extend the MARCWatch Negative upon expiry on August 31, 2021 as the independent review will not be completed by this date.	May 31, 2021 – placed on MARCWatch Negative.
2	Alpha Circle Sdn Bhd	i) RM160 million Senior Sukuk Musharakah ii) RM55 million Junior Sukuk Musharakah	A _{IS}	Negative	The rating action was due to increased concerns related to the decline in the volume of foreign labour force, which has been impacted by the COVID-19 crisis. In addition, the crisis has also caused administrative delays in permit renewals for existing foreign workers that have led to longer billing cycles. These factors have resulted in Alpha Circle's lower-than-projected cash flows and as a consequence, Alpha Circle has breached	February 11, 2021 – placed on MARCWatch Negative.

					its finance service cover ratio covenant of 1.75x. We maintained the negative outlook to reflect the uncertainty that the foreign worker volume would improve sufficiently in time to support Alpha Circle's upcoming financial obligations. If there is a sharp rebound in the foreign worker volume to the historical levels and/or the company receives sufficient external liquidity support, the outlook could be revised to stable. The ratings of the Senior Sukuk Musharakah were downgraded to BBB_{IS} from A_{IS} and Junior Sukuk Musharakah to BB_{IS} from BBB_{IS} on May 24th, 2021. The ratings remained on MARCWatch Negative. The ratings actions reflected the increasingly difficult position that Alpha Circle is in to generate sufficient cash flow to be able to meet its upcoming financial obligations in November 2021. This is also due to the recent imposition of MCO 3.0 and the freeze on the new recruitment of foreign labour that have hampered the company's operations. Future negative rating actions will very likely be taken given the	May 24, 2021 – remained in MARCWatch Negative and its ratings were downgraded from A_{IS} to BBB_{IS} and BBB_{IS} to BB_{IS}. potential delays for timely refinancing arrangement in the current environment.

3	MEX II Sdn Bhd	i) RM1.3 billion Sukuk Murabahah ii) RM150.0 million Junior Bonds	A _{IS} BBB	Negative	Placement on MARCWatch Negative was triggered by insufficient progress on the construction of the 16.8-km Lebuhraya Putrajaya-KLIA expressway (MEX Extension) to meet the project milestones since the ratings were downgraded in 2019. In June 2020, MEX II received the approval from Lembaga Lebuhraya Malaysia to complete MEX Extension by September 4, 2021. However, there was no further forward in project progress, with completion at end-July 2020 standing stagnant at 86%. MARC downgraded the Sukuk's rating to BBB_{IS} from A_{IS} and the Junior Bonds' to BB from BBB. The ratings remained on MARCWatch Negative. There were heightened concerns about MEX II's ability to meet its debt service in 2021 as the project remained stalled. MEX II required additional funding to complete the project and meet its near-term financial obligations, which MARC	May 22, 2020 - placed on MARCWatch Negative August 21, 2020 – Extension of MARCWatch Negative November 18, 2020 –and its Ratings downgraded from A_{IS} to BBB_{IS} and from BBB to BB, and remained on MARCWatch Negative. February 9, 2021 –Ratings further downgraded from BBB_{IS} to BB_{IS} and from BB to B. 					believes carries a significant execution risk. MARC further downgraded the Sukuk's rating to BB_{IS} from BBB_{IS}. The rating on the Junior Bonds was also downgraded to B, from BB. The ratings remained on MARCWatch Negative. This rating action reflects the increasing likelihood that MEX II may not be able to put in place a liquidity facility that it had originally expected to procure by end-2020 to meet a principal and profit payment of RM68.7 million due in April 2021. Ratings on the Sukuk and Junior Bonds were further downgraded to C_{IS}/C, from BB_{IS} and B. The ratings actions were driven by the liquidity pressure MEX II was facing and the likelihood of missing an upcoming Sukuk repayment of RM68.7 million due on 29 April 2021; it had only RM7.7 million in cash as at end-February 2021. Another RM38.2 million is also due in October 2021. According to MEX II, it was in discussions with financial institutions to obtain a bridge facility to meet repayment obligations, and with investors for a postponement of the April maturity to October 2021.	on MARCWatch Negative. March 26, 2021 – Ratings downgraded from BB_{IS} to C_{IS} and from B to C. Ratings remained on MARCWatch Negative.
